

MIZUHO ASIA PARTNERS -DATA PROTECTION POLICY-

The purpose of this document (“Data Protection Policy”) is to inform you of how Mizuho Asia Partners Pte. Ltd. manages personal data which is subject to the Singapore Personal Data Protection Act (No. 26 of 2012) (“the Act”).

By entering into any agreements with us, interacting with us, submitting information to us, or applying for any products or services offered by us, you agree and consent to Mizuho Asia Partners Pte. Ltd. (including its related corporations and business units) (collectively, the “Companies”), as well as our respective agents (collectively referred to herein as “Mizuho”, “us”, “we” or “our”) collecting, using, disclosing and sharing amongst themselves your Personal Data, and disclosing such Personal Data to the Companies' authorised service providers and relevant third parties in the manner set forth in this Data Protection Policy.

This Data Protection Policy supplements but does not supersede nor replace any other consents which you may have previously provided to Mizuho in respect of your Personal Data, and your consents herein are additional to any rights which to any of the Companies may have at law to collect, use or disclose your personal data.

Mizuho may from time to time update this Data Protection Policy to ensure that this Data Protection Policy is consistent with our future developments, industry trends and/or any changes in legal or regulatory requirements. Subject to your rights at law, you agree to be bound by the prevailing terms of the Data Protection Policy as updated from time to time and as we may notify you of uploading onto our website. Please check back regularly for updated information on the handling of your Personal Data.

1. Personal Data

- 1.1 In this Data Protection Policy, “Personal Data” refers to any data, whether true or not, about an individual who can be identified (a) from that data; or (b) from that data and other information to which we have or are likely to have access, including data in our records as may be updated from time to time.
- 1.2 Examples of such Personal Data you may provide to us include (depending on the nature of your interaction with us) your name, passport or other identification number, telephone number(s), mailing address, email address and any other information relating to any individuals which you have provided us in any forms you may have submitted to us, or via other forms of interaction with you.

2. Collection of Personal Data

- 2.1 Generally, we collect Personal Data in the following ways:
 - (a) when you submit forms or applications to us in the course of our relationship;
 - (b) when you submit queries, requests, complaints or feedback to us;
 - (c) when you interact with our staff and/or representatives, e.g. via telephone calls, letters, fax, face-to-face meetings and email;

- (d) when your images are captured by us in the form of any photographs or videos while you are within our premises or when you attend our events;
 - (e) when you use any of our services;
 - (f) when you are contacted by, and respond to, our representatives and agents and other service providers;
 - (g) when you respond to our request for additional Personal Data;
 - (h) when you ask to be included in an email or other mailing list;
 - (i) when we receive instructions from a third party lender to collect your personal data to facilitate the provision and administration of banking facilities
 - (j) when we receive your personal data from business partners, public agencies, your employer and other third parties in connection with your relationship with us, including for services insurance policies or job applications; and
 - (k) when you submit your Personal Data to us for any other reasons.
- 2.2 When you browse our website, you generally do so anonymously but please see the section below on cookies. We do not at our website automatically collect Personal Data, including your email address unless you provide such information or login with your account credentials.
- 2.3 If you provide us with any Personal Data relating to a third party (e.g. information concerning employees, directors, authorised persons, and/or family members), by submitting such information to us, you represent to us that you have obtained the consent of that third party to you providing us with their Personal Data for the purposes stated in this Data Protection Policy.
- 2.4 You should ensure that all Personal Data submitted to us is complete, accurate, true and correct. Failure on your part to do so may result in our inability to fulfil your requests and/or applications.

3. IP Address

- 3.1 An IP address is a number that is assigned by your Internet Service Provider to your device when you connect to the internet.
- 3.2 When you visit our website, your IP address is automatically logged in our server. We use your IP address to help diagnose problems with our server, and to administer our website. From your IP address, we may identify the general geographic area from which you are accessing our website. However, we will not be able to pinpoint the exact geographic location from which you are accessing our website. Generally we do not link your IP address to anything that can enable us to identify you unless it is required by applicable laws and regulations.

4. Information on Cookies

- 4.1 A cookie is an element of data that a website can send to your browser, which may then store it on your system. We use cookies in some of our pages to store visitors' preferences and record session information.
- 4.2 The information that we collect is then used to ensure a more personalised service level for our users. You can adjust settings on your browser so that you will be notified when you receive a cookie. Should you wish to disable the cookies associated with these technologies, you may do so by changing the setting on your browser. However, you may not be able to enter certain part(s) of our website, and some of the functions and services may not be able to function without cookies.
- 4.3 Please refer to your browser documentation to check if cookies have been enabled on your computer or to request not to receive cookies.
